CROWN METROPOL

Crown's newest hotel, Crown Metropol opened its doors in April 2010. From the moment you take in the hotel's elegant form and enter the uniquely designed reception area, you will feel a sense of peace and calm that makes every visit to Crown Metropol a welcome escape from day-to-day life.

The hotel is also home to Gordon Ramsay's first Australian restaurant maze and maze Grill which can seat up to 300 guests. Guests staying at Crown Metropol don't even have to leave their rooms to experience maze. The hotel's in-room dining menu has been designed by Gordon Ramsay and prepared by his talented team of chefs. maze can also cater for small meeting groups held at Crown Metropol.

Sitting high above Melbourne, the hotel's day spa ISIKA is a peaceful, private retreat. Whether for a few hours or a few days, ISIKA has been designed to ensure guests enjoy the ultimate in relaxation and rejuvenation of mind, body and spirit. Wellness retreat packages can be specially tailored for incentive groups.

The Office is Crown Metropol's business zone, where guests can organise their day, meet with clients or colleagues, or simply work uninterrupted.

Featuring four meeting rooms that can each hold up to 50 guests theatre style, it's ideal for hosting meetings, presentations, intimate cocktails or private dinners. There is also a dedicated business centre including two small meeting rooms for up to four guests, a private boardroom for up to 12 guests and internet stations.

Larger conferences can be accommodated at the adjacent Crown Conference Centre, which can cater for up to 840 delegates.
