Meet by the river in Melbourne

Welcome to Hilton Melbourne South Wharf - the new first choice for small to medium meetings and events in Melbourne. While redefining Melbourne's riverside experience, Hilton Melbourne South Wharf showcases a spectacular new perspective of the city and offers world-class hospitality along with a state-of-the-art meetings and events offering.

Hilton and the Melbourne Convention and Exhibition Centre (MCEC) have partnered to deliver a contemporary conference offering to meet the needs of the small to medium meetings and events market. This unique collaboration enables Hilton Melbourne South Wharf to provide hotel residential and day guests with direct access to the MCEC's conference facilities, combined with the renowned service and experience that business travellers and meeting organisers have come to expect from Hilton hotels.

Location

Located in the heart of the city's newest precinct, South Wharf, Melbourne's newest Hilton is shouldered by the Yarra River, just two traffic lights from the airport, and only a short stroll across the connecting footbridge to the city centre.

Accommodation Facilities

The hotel's direct internal access to the MCEC makes it the natural choice for delegate accommodation. The 396 oversized rooms and suites offer more than enough space to work without distraction, or sit back and enjoy the view from the expansive floor-to-ceiling windows overlooking the city and Yarra River or over Port Phillip Bay. On level four, enjoy the added luxury of the private Executive Lounge with an impressive interior extending to an outdoor terrace boasting a breathtaking view. On the top floors, 32 fully serviced, self-contained apartments are a convenient new option for longer stays.

Conference + Event Facilities

The Melbourne Convention Centre has been inspired by the unique and distinguishing characteristics of its city. From Melbourne's art and culture to its famous sporting ethos, the new centre will leave those who visit feeling like they have enjoyed a truly Melbourne experience.

The venue offers a range of meeting rooms with outstanding flexibility for small and medium meetings, seminars, conferences and events. Meeting rooms on level 1 are directly linked to the Hilton Melbourne South Wharf, allowing seamless transfer for delegates between the hotel and the MCEC. Plus, everything that you could possibly need in a meeting room is already built-in. Every room is fully equipped with screens, sound system, internet access, lighting and an intelligent lectern that allows total control. Touch a button to dim the lights, start a presentation or link to another room.

In addition to meeting rooms, there is an outstanding banquet room with breathtaking views across the city and towards the Docklands. No other room in Melbourne will offer such a spectacular setting combined with the city's freshest and most innovative food and wine selections.

Recreation Facilities

Start your morning, or wind down after a busy day in our fitness centre. Take in the superb views over the Yarra as you enjoy a complete work out with our full range of the latest Precor cardiovascular and resistance equipment.

Technical Facilities

With wireless connectivity throughout the hotel, along with a full range of impeccable business focused services including a fully equipped business centre and secretarial support, every imaginable convenience is available.
