Ideally located on Collins Street in Melbourne's banking and legal district and within walking distance of key attractions, Melbourne's grandest heritage hotel is one of the city's last and best remaining examples of 19th century gothic, an irresistible combination of Australian history and European style.

With its idyllic location, InterContinental Melbourne The Rialto is the ideal venue to host your next meeting or special event. The hotel's rich history shines through its dedicated meeting and event spaces, which range from intimate boardrooms and breakout spaces, to an elegant ballroom catering for up to 400.
